WINDING CREEK

June 21, 1999

Thank You!

While not well attended, those who attended the picnic had a nice time. The children loved the clown and playing water games. Big thanks to Phil and Carolyn Callahan for hosting the picnic and doing lots of work. Thanks to Michael Oestereich and Phil for grilling, Pat and Doug McClane for doing games, Ted Lemieux for getting the grill, and to those who helped clean up!

The clown was provided by Trebor Entertainment, and the brats were from G & W Sausage in O'Fallon.

It's been fun, however, I am looking for a Picnic Chairperson for next year. I have done it two years now, and it is time to pass on the torch. If anyone is interested, please let me know. Loretta Oestereich 624-4122

Neighborhood Watch

There have been home burglaries in Lebanon recently. The possible suspects have been knocking on doors to see if someone is home. If yes, they ask the person if they want to have their carpets cleaned. The "sales people" have only one business card and ask for it back, and they may not come in a vehicle. If no one is home, the theory is that the house is robbed. This information was not learned from neighbors until their neighbors were robbed. Moral of the story? Report any suspicious behavior to the police. Be careful and alert! Loretta

If you would like speed limit signs, crosswalks and signs posted, call your aldermen, Jerry Albrecht - Ward 7, or City Engineer Sid LeGrand at City Hall, 624-4500.

Vantage Homes is working on getting the lights in the median at the entrance to the subdivision in working order. The wiring was taken out when the fountain was removed.
